At Soho House this morning we checked out the new styles from ultra-chic sunglasses label Prism. The collection is designed by the beautifully talented Anna Laub, who began making them out of sheer frustration at the lack of sunglasses that suited her. Inspired by classic styles of the Fifties and Sixties, the glasses are produced in limited numbers and are all hand made in a family-run factory in Italy. We particularly like the Paris and London styles in crystal and dark tortoiseshell, as modelled here by Anna herself.
